

Notes for New Patient Registration

New patients must present valid identification documents (such as ID card, passport, birth certificate) for registration before the first consultation; if the identity of the patient cannot be verified, clinic service will not be provided.