

Arrangements on “Chinese Medicine Practitioner’s Assistant” and “Teaching and Clinical Practice”

Teaching and Clinical Practice

The clinic/centre is one of the teaching and clinical practice bases of HKBU School of Chinese Medicine, students will be trained under the guidance of Chinese medicine practitioners. If patients wish to have an individual consultation, they can request the attending practitioner to make proper arrangements.

Chinese Medicine Practitioner’s Assistant

The attending practitioner may be assisted by other Chinese medicine practitioners to conduct treatments, including acupuncture, bone-setting treatment, etc. Patients have the right to request the attending practitioner to conduct the entire treatment.
